ST Engineering will use our reasonable endeavours to respond to your request by the reasonably soonest time.

We will use our reasonable endeavours to respond to your request for information. However, there are some circumstances under which ST Engineering will not accede to your request for information. These circumstances are:¹

1. You have requested for opinion data that is kept solely for an evaluative purpose;
2. You have requested for documents related to a prosecution if all proceedings relating to the prosecution have not been completed;
3. You have requested for Personal Data which is subject to legal privilege;
4. You have requested for Personal Data the disclosure of which would reveal confidential commercial information that could harm the competitive position of ST Engineering and/or ST Engineering Group;
5. Your request relates to Personal Data that is collected, use or disclosed for the purposes of an investigation where the investigation and associated proceedings and appeals have not been completed;
6. In ST Engineering’s discretion,
 - (a) Your request would unreasonably interfere with the operations of ST Engineering and/or ST Engineering Group because it is repetitious or systematic;
 - (b) the burden or expense of responding to your request would be unreasonable to ST Engineering and/or ST Engineering Group or disproportionate to your interests;
 - (c) your request is for information that does not exist or cannot be found;
 - (d) your request is for information that is trivial; or
 - (e) your request is otherwise frivolous or vexatious.

¹ Fifth Schedule of Personal Data Protection Act 2012, copy available for viewing at Attorney-General Chambers’ Singapore Statutes Online website at <http://sso.agc.gov.sg>.

In the event that any of the above circumstances apply to your request for information, we will contact you within 30 days from the date of receipt of payment of the administrative fee and inform you of the reason for us not being able to respond to your request for information.

If you have any queries concerning our Request for Information Notice, please contact the relevant Data Protection Officer whose contact details are set out above.
